As we approach the Spring Solstice, the awakening of the natural world to new growth and expansion, we turn our attention to what is awakening in our own lives.

Perhaps you've heard or seen the phrase, "Stay Woke." Urban Dictionary defines "woke" as being aware," and "knowing what's going on in the community." It can also be used to reference anyone who is thinking for themselves, who becomes aware of the fact that what they see on the surface is rarely the whole story. It's important for us to go beneath the layers of our everyday reality in order to recognize that we are the architects of our own lives.

As Metaphysicians, one of the first concepts that we awaken to on our path toward spiritual development is our Divine Authority. That is: You are the ONLY authority in your life and you are ONLY the authority in your own life. That recognition, along with the realization that God is within each of us, brings us to the awareness that we are the creators of our lives.

AWAKENING

Once we acknowledge our Divine Authority, we realize that we can no longer blame any other Person, Place or Thing for the effects, whether positive or negative that manifest in our lives. That's the responsibility of this concept. Divine Authority also indicates a freedom: We are not responsible for the way anyone else chooses to live their lives. Whether they are your children, your parents or your partner.

As you awaken to the great creative power that is within you, you can begin to plant the seeds that harvest into the Happiness, Health and Wealth that you desire!

Happy Spring, Happy Awakening!

AWAKENING

This month, the theme of our talks is Awakening.

Here are some quotes:

“Your greatest awakening comes, when you are aware about your infinite nature.”
— Amit Ray

“I called the world of phenomena an illusion, I called my eyes and my tongue and accident, valueless phenomena. No, that is all over; I have awakened, I have really awakened and have just been born today.”
— Hermann Hesse, Siddhartha

“For a seed to achieve its greatest expression, it must come completely undone. The shell cracks, its insides come out and everything changes. To someone who doesn't understand growth, it would look like complete destruction.”

— Cynthia Ocelli

“Your own Self-Realization is the greatest service you can render the world.”
— Ramana Maharshi

“Once the soul awakens, the search begins and you can never go back. From then on, you are inflamed with a special longing that will never again let you linger in the lowlands of complacency and partial fulfillment. The eternal makes you urgent. You are loath to let compromise or the threat of danger hold you back from striving toward the summit of fulfillment.”

— John O'Donohue
